

Large Quantity of Ocher Found
In Baxter County

Special to the Gazette.
Mountain Home, Oct. 21. — Sam Grigg, a farmer living seven miles east of here, recently discovered a large quantity of ocher on his land. The mineral lies in a big bed over a large portion of his place and an adjoining place. It is used in making paint and refining oil. He will try to find a market for it.

Gazette

10-22-39